DR. JAMES T. ARIS ACHIEVES SCHOLAR OF THE DAWSON ACADEMY

Dr. James T. Aris and the professional team of Wilton Center Family Dentistry are dedicated to creating a partnership with every patient they treat to help them achieve and maintain their optimal dental health. During his 25 years of practicing dentistry, Dr. Aris has accepted the charge to keep abreast of advances in the field for the benefit of his patients and the betterment of dentistry.

The Dawson Academy, one of the leading international organizations for post-graduate dental education, is proud to announce that Dr. James T. Aris has completed the seven core courses in the Academy's extensive continuing education courses, and is now a Scholar of The Dawson Academy. A Dawson Scholar is trained in an analysis of bite problems with a thorough understanding of dental occlusion and the functions of the masticatory system. The cornerstone of The Dawson Academy philosophy is a comprehensive understanding of how the TM joint, muscles, proprioceptive input, lower anterior teeth, upper anterior teeth, lower posterior teeth and upper posterior teeth are designed to function in harmony with one another.

The Dawson Academy is where dentists come to gain a better understanding of not only teeth, but also the muscles and systems that control them. The Dawson Academy teaches the essential principles and skills for complete care with primary concentrations in dental occlusion, the temporomandibular joints and comprehensive esthetic restorative dentistry. The faculty is comprised of over 20 practicing dentists from around the world.

A believer in life-long learning, Dr. Aris has made an extraordinary commitment to education completing over 1,000 hours of dental continuing education. "Preventative care is my first priority," stresses Dr. Aris, "because, dental health is an integral part of a person's overall health." Dr. Aris is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania School of Dental Medicine, a Fellow with the Academy of General Dentistry, and a 2014 Scholar of The Dawson Academy.
